

Andrea Grist

I have been the Headteacher at Russell Hall since January 2014 and I have worked in schools for the past 22 years. Prior to this role, I have been Deputy Head at 2 other schools in Bradford and before that, worked for 9 years as a teacher in Lancashire. I have taught across the whole Primary age range, I have extensive experience of working with children with Special Educational Needs, I have been a lead teacher for Gifted and Talented Education and an Early Years Manager, amongst many other roles which I have occupied in schools. I have a passion for ensuring creativity in Education and for developing creative, confident, independent thinkers!

I have twin girls who are 13 now and they have come through the Bradford Education system and have thrived. Home centres around transporting two busy children around various Music, Art and Sporting Activities and trying where possible to squeeze in time for my own passions for theatre, reading, drawing and walking the dog!
