

Fare Share provides surplus food to charities and schools to help feed their families.

Russell Hall Pantry provides food and recipes to our families to encourage them to cook together and enable them to eat a balanced diet.

We give every family access to our pantry and provide recipes to around 20 families per week.