

Class 1 Toy Day

To begin our History topic on toys, we asked the children to bring in their favourite toys. Some children brought in toys that were special to their parents. The children enjoyed sharing some of their Christmas gifts as part of the topic. They are learning to recognise the difference between old and new.

